

I feel that I have been deceived by XO Communications and I believe that they should be held accountable for their actions.